CLARK UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
INVITES APPLICATIONS FOR

THE ZENOVIA SOCHOR MEMORIAL AWARD
SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDYING ABROAD DURING SPRING SEMESTER 2027

Professor Zenovia Sochor taught comparative politics courses at Clark for almost two decades before her untimely death in 1998. She was known by students and colleagues as a gifted scholar, a valued friend, and a caring mentor. Alumni, friends, and colleagues have created the Zenovia Sochor Memorial Fund to provide support to Clark students for study abroad. The $750 Sochor award is given to a student each year.

To be considered for this award, students must:

- have an overall GPA of 3.4 or higher
- be a declared Political Science major
- study abroad during spring 2027 semester, preferably in an Eastern European country; other programs such as the London Internship, Namibia, etc. are also acceptable.

There is no application form for the Zenovia Sochor Scholarship. In order to apply, submit a 1-2 page typed essay that describes:

- your reasons and goals for studying abroad
- when and where you have been accepted to study abroad

Include your name, box number, e-mail address, and local phone number on the cover page and attach an unofficial transcript at the end of your essay. Applications should be submitted directly to the Political Science Department. Please submit your applications to Professor Michael Butler, Department Chair (mbutler@clarku.edu) and copy Judith Barton, Managerial Secretary (jbarton@clarku.edu).

After studying abroad, the recipient must prepare a 2-3 page report based on their experience.

If you have any questions, please contact Professor Michael Butler, Chair, Department of Political Science, 309 Jefferson Academic Center, at 508-793-7186 x7186 or via email at mbutler@clarku.edu.
